

MUNYON'S MANY FRIENDS

All Approve His New Ideas.
The Eminent Professor Ably Supported in His Fight for Humane Methods.

Mrs. Baynor, of 732 East One Hundred and Forty-fifth street, New York city, says: "I have suffered terribly from Dyspepsia in the worst form. The slightest diet produced death-like sickness. Added to this I had a severe attack of rheumatism, with swelling of the limbs and excruciating pain. My heart became excited and I was sinking so rapidly from exhaustion that my physicians gave me up as hopeless. At this time Mr. Munyon brought me some of his Remedies and encouraged me to try them. The benefit from their use was miraculous. I improved at once and was out of danger in a few days. My improvement was continuous and now I can thank Professor Munyon for a complete and wonderful cure."

Munyon's Rheumatism Cure is guaranteed to cure rheumatism in any part of the body. Acute or muscular rheumatism cured in from one to five days. It never fails to cure sharp, shooting pains in the arms, legs, sides, back or breast. Its removal in any part of the body in from one to three hours. It is guaranteed to promptly cure lameness, stiff and swollen joints, stiff back, and all pains in the hips and loins. Chronic rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago or pain in the back are speedily cured.

Munyon's Homeopathic Home Remedy Co., of Philadelphia, puts up specific for nearly every disease, which are sold by all druggists, mostly for 25 cents a bottle.

FACT.

The Kind of Sheep He Used Combs On.

An old dilapidated son of Ham strolled into one of our prominent uptown drug stores yesterday and, after vainly trying to purchase two cents worth of "comparative" pills and finally paying five cents for a "dose," he, in sauntering out, sped a case of combs and requested to see them closer.

The obliging clerk handed him several of the cheaper sort and, after trying strength on his thumb, Uncle Josh remarked:

"Dese yer ain't strong enough to comb sheep's wool."

Clerk—"Certainly not. They are intended for people, not sheep."

Uncle Josh—"Ain't they? I thought they was."

Clerk—"You don't mean to say you comb sheep's wool, do you?"

Uncle Josh—"Oh, yes, Boss; in case I does."

Clerk—"Why—I—you don't say so? Why do you do it? What kind of sheep—those that graze on grass?"

"Uncle Josh—"No, Boss; dose dat graze on corn bread and—"

The clerk tumbled.

THE PRESS CLUB

Organized Yesterday, With Mr. J. A. Dalby as President.

About twenty members of the newspaper fraternity of Norfolk and Portsmouth gathered in the office of Mr. J. M. Marshall, real estate operator, in The VIRGINIAN building, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock to complete the organization of the Norfolk and Portsmouth Press Club.

Every paper in the two cities was represented, and the outlook for a successful organization is very good. At the beginning there will be about thirty-five members.

After the adoption of a constitution and by laws the following officers were elected:

MR. J. A. DALBY, OF THE VIRGINIAN, president; Mr. Charles T. Bland, of the Portsmouth Star, vice-president; Mr. Hugh M. Murray, of the Landmark, treasurer; Joseph H. Martin, secretary.

The constitution provides that active members must be connected with the press of Norfolk or surrounding towns as editors, publishers, proprietors, reporters, artists, correspondents or business managers or accredited correspondents of newspapers published outside of the city.

HONORARY MEMBERS.

Honorary members may be elected from authors, writers, public men or well known friends of the club upon payment of $10 per annum.

The objects of the organization, as stated by the constitution, are to promote social intercourse and friendly feeling among its members, to advance the interests of the profession of journalism and to extend fraternal courtesies to visiting members of the press.

The following executive committee was elected:

CHAIRMAN, H. S. BAILEY,

the Landmark; James A. Pugh, the Pilot; E. D. Gregory, the VIRGINIAN; T. W. Leigh, the Portsmouth Star; John C. Niemeyer, the Public Ledger; John L. Dege, the News and Courier; one other to elect.

It is the intention of the organization to fix up suitable quarters as a club room, and to this end the following committee was appointed to secure and furnish a hall: Chairman, J. A. Dalby, John Whitehead, Frank Townsend, H. S. Bailey, Robert T. Small, John L. Dege.

Messrs. Murray, Leigh and Martin were appointed a committee on membership.

The club tendered its thanks to Mr. Marshall for the use of his office and adjourned to meet again next Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Notice to Mariners.

Notice is given by the Lighthouse Board that light vessel No. 58 has broken away from her moorings, about twelve miles south southwest of Davis' New South Shoal. She will be replaced at the earliest practical moment. This notice affects the list of lights and fog signals, Atlantic and Gulf coasts, 1894, page 31, No 116, and the list of beacons and buoys, second lighthouse district, 1894, page 74.

New York Male Quartette.

Lovers of good music will have an opportunity to hear a first class performance at the Y. M. C. A. Hall to-night by the New York Male Quartette, assisted by Miss Marion Short, a delightful reader, who has won golden opinions from some of the best cities in the country. The quartette sang at Grauman Street Methodist and Freemason Street Baptist churches Sunday and greatly pleased those who were present.

THE GIRLS' HOME.

Annual Meeting and Election of Officers.

The annual meeting of the Girls' Home was held yesterday in the parlors of the home at 11 o'clock a. m.

The reports of the retiring officers were read and approved, after which the meeting went into the election of officers for the ensuing year, with the following results: Mrs. Wm. Lauder, president; Mrs. Luther Sheldon, first vice-president; Miss Reid, second vice-president; Mrs. L. White, third vice-president; Mrs. Cohn, fourth vice-president; Mrs. Joseph Lane, fifth vice-president; Mrs. Hallett, treasurer; Miss Amelia Broughton, corresponding secretary; Miss Bertie Ames, recording secretary; Mrs. John Old, chairman Entertaining Committee; Miss Reid, chairman Press Committee; Mrs. Nimmo, chairman on admission; Mrs. Cecil, chairman Finance Committee; Mrs. White, in charge of home.

Sunday Evening Fire.

Sunday afternoon a fire started in the rear of T. B. Wright's store, 316 Church street, and spread rapidly up the ceiling to the second floor, which was occupied by Mrs. Mollie Roberts, a dressmaker. From the second story of 316 the flames spread to the adjoining house, occupied by Mr. F. Pruschanski.

The apartments of Mrs. Roberts were completely gutted and her household goods, as well as a number of dresses belonging to customers, were consumed. Mrs. Fish, the mother of Mrs. Roberts, had a narrow escape through the burning smoke, as she was removing a sick child. Her clothing caught fire, but was put out before such damage was done. This family lost everything and have no insurance. The stock of groceries of Mr. Wright was a total loss, his damage being about $800, which was insured.

Pruschanski's furniture is almost a total loss and his stock badly damaged, amounting to probably $1,500, on which he had no insurance.

The buildings were owned by Mr. Lagoria and were damaged about $1,200, which is covered by insurance.

R. E. Briggs vs. G. S. Briggs, for the recovery of a debt of $325.02.

Marine Bank vs. G. S. Briggs, for a debt of $1,500.

A Terrible Visitor.

Pain is always a terrible visitor, and often comes to itself with one for life. This infection is preventable, in case of rheumatism, by timely resort to Hostetter's Stomach Balm, which checks the encroachments of this obstinate and dangerous malady at the outset. The term "dangerous" is used advisedly, for rheumatism is always liable to attack the vital organs and terminate life. No testimony is more conclusive and convincing than that of physicians who testify to the efficient effect of the balm in these cases. Persons incur a waiting in rainy or showy weather, and who are exposed to cold, should use the Balm as a preventative of ill effects. Rheumatism, dyspepsia, liver and kidney trouble, nervousness and debility are also among the ailments to which this popular remedy is so well adapted. For the infirmities, aches and stiffness of the aged it is highly beneficial.

A Stray Piano.

Possessing a lovely singing quality of and an artistic touch, can be bought for $250.
